If the buyer is a consumer and has ordered goods via the J&J Tile Design online store ("Company") or another means of remote communication, they have the right—except in cases listed in § 1837 of Act No. 89/2012 Coll., Civil Code, as amended—to withdraw from the purchase agreement within 14 days of receiving the goods, without giving any reason and without any penalty. The buyer must notify the Company in writing at the Company's place of business or by email as listed on the sample form.

If the buyer, who is a consumer, withdraws from the purchase agreement, they must send or return the goods received from the Company without undue delay, and no later than 14 days from the date of withdrawal.

If the buyer, who is a consumer, withdraws from the purchase agreement, the Company will refund, without undue delay and no later than 14 days from the date of withdrawal, all funds received from the buyer (the purchase price of the delivered goods), including delivery costs, using the same method. If the buyer chose a delivery method other than the cheapest one offered by the Company, only the cost equivalent to the cheapest offered method will be refunded. The Company is not obliged to refund the received funds before the buyer hands over or proves they have sent the goods back to the Company.
